THIRTY-FIVE dollar newspaper business, $308 debts and $330 assets were some of the little economies effected by Postmaster General Hitchcock in furnishing his "red room" and "brown room" offices. These and other striking examples of Republican cut-to-the-quick economy were revealed in testimony taken before the House committee on expenditures in the postoffice department. Mr. Hitchcock sanctioned the expenditure of $7,500 in refurbishing three rooms, $4,000 of which went to furnishing the Postmaster General's private office alone. Circassian walnut furnishings especially designed and manufactured to special order, and specially designed carpets of the expensive kind, were furnished for this expenditure. All supplies were bought without subjecting the lucky dealer who secured the contracts to competition. He had to but state his price and secure an order upon the treasury. Five hundred and forty dollars purchased two mahogany daybenches for American royalty, $200 brought in two arm chairs, $68 produced a table, $295 purchased a second desk, and $100 a third. A wardrobe to hang coats in cost $265. One rug was purchased at $48.75. Another davenport in Circassian walnut "with pillow" cost Uncle Sam $365; draperies in one room, $600. Parquet flooring in one room, $882. Telephone table, $64. Table with black marble top, $64. One bookcase, $195. It cost the people $332 to "scraper" the wood work in the private office preparatory to new finish. Three hundred and twenty-two dollars bought a "Dotten-Dutton decoration" on the walls of the private office. Such was the measure of Mr. Hitchcock's economy in matters pertaining to his own personal comfort. In matters concerning the employees of the government—the railway mail clerks for instance—he followed entirely different lines of procedure.
 Mr. Hitchcock figured it out one day that he making three mail clerks do the work of four, he could make a record of economy. The already over-worked railway mail clerks were driven beyond the limit of endurance. Conditions in the west, especially in the Tenth division became intolerable. Open rebellion broke out on the Pierre-Tracy line, the men refusing to do the extra work imposed upon them. Ten men were suspended. Then five of them were reinstated, but refused to return to work without their associates. This aroused the whole northwest. The clerks met in mass meeting at St. Paul, Minn. They are now forcing the Postmaster General to relent in his plan to economize by overworking the railway mail boys.
 Strange workings of the Hitchcock economy bump caused the Postmaster General to pay the full year salary of $5,000 to A. W. Lawhe, third assistant postmaster general, while the later assigned in New Mexico recuperating in health and looking after the interests of the republican party, but performing no government service whatever. Still another example of Hitchcock economy was his appointment of a pseudo "time duck commission" of four of his intimate friends and staunch political supporters to go on a sort of Holy Grail conquest at the government's expense. The commission investigated "time recorders" in every large city in the country, managing to disburse in expenses $1, 970.25. The average amount spent by each man for subsistence was between nine and ten dollars a day. Transportation expenses for each man during a period of less than two months, averaged $300. Among many items of expenditure charged to and paid by Uncle Sam appear barber fees, bath charges, telephone bills, shaves, newsstand charges, in fact almost everything possible in such a category except laundry, cigars and florists' bills. The aristocratic Hotel Willard in Washington, the Astor in New York and kindred hosteleries were employed to shelter the government emissaries.
 Porter fees average fifty cents. Always the "commissioners" indulged in Bull tickets, and cab fares were thickly sprinkled among the vouchers. Sometimes the commissioners traveled alone, but generally together, as behooves any well-ordered, pleasure loving government committee. How gratifying all this must be to the discharged postal employees while they sit and figure out how much the government is "saving" on them.

A KANSAS editor writes the following, undoubtedly during an hour of deep meditation: A newspaper has innumerable opportunities to boost and extend courtesies of various kinds to people, and is generally willing to do so. In doing these things it does not expect any direct pay. But there are people who will accept benefits and favors from a paper, and then when an opportunity comes to reciprocate, they forget all about them and give it the cold shoulder.
 For this kind of people the newspaper has a good memory. The friendship of a newspaper is worth something, for the newspaper always returns more boosting than it receives. No man lives who does not at some time in his life and perhaps often, ask for and receive favors from a newspaper. Then is when the editor's memory comes to his aid.

GOOD NEWS.
 Many Richmond Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad back suffers in Richmond are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach.
 Many a lame, weak and aching back has no more thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands upon thousands of people are telling the good news of their experiences with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

Dawson Barnett, Rowland St., Stanford, Ky., says: "Some time ago I had a severe fall and this, together with the landing to which I am subject in my work, brought on kidney trouble. For several days I could hardly get about on account of the pains in my back.
 I also noticed that the passages of the passages of the secretions were irregular, especially at night. I decided to cure this trouble before it became chronic, and as I knew Doan's Kidney Pills to be good for such complaints I procured a box. Before I had finished the contents, I was cured and I have had no kidney trouble since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
 Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

 Makes us laugh when the old rooster finds a worm and makes over it till he gets all the hens in the yard around him and then just gobbles the worm up himself; but isn't that about what lots of folks do?

The Missouri Experiment Station has given out the results of an experiment lasting three years which shows large profit from feeding hogs on forage crops.
 The average income per acre from clover forage was $24.11, from rape and $22.03, from corn and cowpeas $29.03 and from bluegrass $17.71. The estimates are all made on the basis of 60 cents a bushel for the corn feed and 6 cents a pound for the pork produced.
 The results are important as indicating what may be accomplished when the hogs themselves do all the harvesting.

Warren county raised $50,000 worth of strawberries this year.
 The Hunkins (Tenn.) Fruit Growers' Association, shipped 126 cars of strawberries with an average of 235 crates to the car, of 50,700 crates at $1.75, amounting to $100,960. There were 1-300,800 quarts picked, and as the pickers received two cents per quart, they received $27,160. This makes a total of $128,075 turned loose in Gibson county, Tennessee, inside of a month from the cultivation of strawberries. The share is a lesson to those who persist in growing tobacco in Central Kentucky.

Most Popular Hymns
 "Nearer My God to Thee" Comes First, and Then
 "Abide With Me"

An attempt made in a church to ascertain by vote of the congregation the best hymns is reported in the Christian Advocate.
 "Nearer, My God, to Thee," led the popular vote," it says. There were 112 votes cast for this hymn out of a total of 185. "Abide With Me" came second with 107 votes; "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," third with ninety-two votes.
 Strangely to say—some of us think it to be strange—Love to Tell the Story" came fourth, eighty-nine votes.

Close after this came "Lead, Kindly Light," (eighty-four votes). The other chosen were: "Rescue the Perishing" (eighty votes); "Rock of Ages" (seventy-five votes); "Onward, Christian Soldiers" (sixty-seven votes); and "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" (sixty-one votes).
 Four great hymns just failed to get into the list, each of them receiving more than fifty votes: "Loves Divine," "All Love Excelling," "Just As I Am Without One Plea," "Faith of Our Fathers" "Living Still," and "In the Cross of Christ I Glory."

It was no easy task to choose among so many favorites, yet many were glad to attempt it. A large proportion of the answers were given by men, who supposedly are not interested in the music of our services. The place of the Gospel song, the song with a chorus, is higher in the estimation of our people than many would have had.

Three of the ten chosen are re-gated by many of us to the prayer meeting or to the more fervid informal after service during the season of revival. The people would have them in their most dignified hour of praise. The people prefer to sing, for example, "I Love to Tell the Story" rather than "I Love a Thousand Tongues to Sing," at least this vote would so indicate.

Wesley's great hymn that is ever to begin our hymnal, ever to be the first hymn in all Methodist collections of sacred songs, had only sixteen votes, while its humbler constant had eighty-nine. "Rescue the Perishing" had more votes than "Rock of Ages," and as many votes as "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

Prayer is the attitude of the soul in the first five hymns chosen; petition, not praise nor personal appeal. Seven of the ten have personal pronoun in the first line. "Nearer, My God, to Thee" is the first hymn chosen. "What a Friend We Have in Jesus" the last one. What would have been the order had the last hymn had the line "What a Friend I Have in Jesus?" Oliver Wendell Holmes says somewhere that Dr. Smith showed his genius in writing "My Country 'Tis of Thee," not Our Country."

The power of the humble poet, "whose songs gushed from his heart," is strikingly emphasized. Henry Francis Lyte leads Charles Wesley and Miss Katherine Hankey leads Cardinal Newman. Mrs. Sarah Flower Adams leads all of them. There is a refreshing catholicity. A Methodist church chooses only one of the hymns of the Wesleys to remain in its list of ten! A Methodist church chooses as its dearest hymn one written by a Unitarian! A Methodist church puts a Roman Catholic hymn well up towards the top among its favorites.

 districts in Madison County, one to be erected at Concord in Educational Division No. 1, and the other to be erected at Shallow Ford in Educational Division No. 6. Plans and specifications are in the hands of the County Superintendent of Schools at his office in Richmond, Ky., where they may be seen until 1 o'clock, Monday, June 19th, at which time the contracts for the erection of the two above named houses will be awarded to the lowest and best responsible bidder or bidders. A bond with good and approved surety for the performance of contracts will be required. The county Board of Education reserves the right to reject any and all bids. This 6th day of June, 1911.

no community can afford; to do anyone a benefit it must be kept moving and to do the most good it should seek legitimate channels. Then let us divorce our selves from the prevailing "get rich quick" fever and get back to the good ways of our forefathers.
 Put your money into something at home, where it will HELP YOUR HOME TOWN and enhance the other interests you may have. Why not build a home? There's no satisfaction like that borne of the knowledge you own a home. Start it today and tomorrow you'll awaken with a feeling of independence like that of 1776. Of course you'll need lumber, but we can quickly help you out, as our stock is complete and most orders can be filled the day we get them.

Farm Notes.
 Soap-suds will kill plant lice. So will tobacco extract, kerosene emulsion or whale-oil soap.
 It does take some time to spray cows, but it is time well expended. Saying nothing about the comfort of the cows, there will be a real money return for the work you lay out.
 Makes us laugh when the old rooster
 folks do?

 profit from feeding hogs on forage crops.
